Number 9.

THE COLYUM.

There is a space of about forty feet between here and the post office that I know Jesse Olive would like to have the sidewalk raised to grade. Of course hundreds of others who trod this dump daily are not interested but I don't think they would get an injunction against it.

Even bachelors can be popular with children. The first time that little Dolly Vaughan and the Harness stayed away from me all night they spent at the home of D. H. Postlethweight. H. is a pretty good scout though if he does spell his name with a twist in the middle.

o o o o

The other day I ran into Jeff Davis talking excitedly and with some considerable heat to a number of good citizens. Upon anxious inquiry as to the cause of the commotion I learned that Jeff was merely telling them what he would like to do to a road overseer that would dump a scraper full of dirt about every five feet in a public highway and then run off and leave it. After calming the engineer down I suggested to him that it probably was no worse than digging a ditch across the road on a hillside every few feet so that the water could run from first one side then the other. I also explained to him that no doubt all this was done for the benefit of the oafs who had seen overseas service. After a fellow has spent a year or so bumping over shell craters and an occasional trip "over the top" it would be too sudden a change not to experience the same feeling now and then. A volley of oaths will have to take the place of the infantry fire here though. Jeff finally subsided but I actually believe he would have gotten angry enough to have somebody arrested if somebody hadn't quieted him though.

If somebody don't start to rebuild the burned section of Marion pretty soon I am going to have the alibi printed on our business stationery. It would save a lot of verbal efforts. Every time I get out of town I am asked countless times when we are going to start something down here, and frankly I am beginning to think that a little work would go a long ways further than a lot of alibi. W. P. H.

The conductor of this colyum has an awful grudge against the person or persons who enticed Bob Wilborn to go into politics. This needn't be considered a boost for his opponent either.

R. F. WHEELER

The Salvation Army Home Service Fund Campaign.

The National Home Service Fund Campaign which was conducted throughout the country last summer, but which was postponed in Marion on account of the fire will be put on during the second week in October.

Prof. Hugh M. Oldfield, District Director of the Salvation Army was in the city the latter part of the week conferring with the local committee who has charge of the campaign here and they and other prominent citizens said that the small sum of $700 which the Salvation Army is asking of this county would be easily subscribed since this great organization rendered such valuable service to the soldier boys. Realizing this fact, the citizens will consider it a privilege to contribute to this wonderful organization that their good work may go on.

All the money obtained in this campaign will be used in this state and will be distributed for the following good causes: Slum settlements, rescue homes, industrial homes, workmen's hotels, where a poor man may find a clean bed at a merely nominal price, children's homes, young women's boarding homes, Christmas dinners furnished by ticket to needy families, fresh air camps, free employment bureaus, missing friends' bureau, prison work, training colleges where young men and women are trained for officership in the Salvation Army. Besides the above is the vast volume of temporary relief, which includes the distribution of free ice, wood and coal, of clothing, shoes, medicines, etc., the free day outings for poor mothers and children, and the actual cash disbursed to save families from eviction or persecution.

Dr. Dean Enjoys Visit of Brothers.

The following was clipped from a Ward county, Texas, paper:

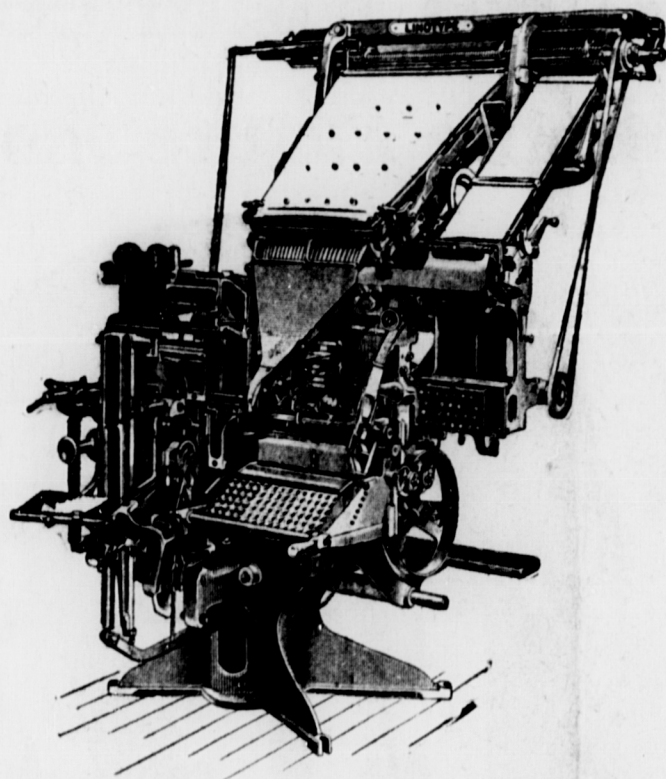

"Jobe and A. Dean, of Marion, Ky., departed Tuesday night for their home after a few days' visit with their brother, Dr. T. L. Dean, and nieces, Mesdames C. E. and Collier Nichols.

In turn they were accompanied on their return by the Doctor, who claims that his brothers stayed just long enough to eat up his garden, and that it is his purpose to regain the loss by going home with them to devour their gardens, fall fruits, etc.

We rejoice that the Doctor decided to make the trip with his brothers, and we wish him a pleasant visit among his relatives and friends amidst the old familiar scenes of his boyhood, and we believe the trip will do him good.

The Doctor is now some eighty odd years young, but is more sprightly than many of us who are many years his junior."

Our New Linotype

Our new linotype is now being installed and unless something happens unforeseen this will be the last issue of the Press set by hand. With this modern typesetting machine we will be able to give our readers a nicer looking paper and better service than ever before.

We will be compelled to issue only four pages until some rebuilding is done in Marion. The room we now have at our disposal will not permit us to install a press large enough for an eight page paper and there are no vacant buildings in town at this time. We trust our subscribers will be patient with us for the time for this is a matter over which we have no control. All that we can do is to give you the best we can under the circumstances. We pledge you that when Marion is rebuilt that we will move into a building of sufficient size for us to give you a regular paper and we will put forth our best efforts to make this the very best newspaper in Kentucky.

Any time you have anything of general interest tell us about it—it won't make us at all mad to tell us of our shortcomings even. If there is anything we can do to make this a better paper we want to know about it.

ROAD SURVEY TO BEGIN

Judge Robert L. Moore Has Received The Following Letter.

Dear Sir:

You will please be advised that this office has appointed Mr. L. L. Pearsall, Chief Location Engineer of the proposed Federal Aid Highway from Louisville to Paducah and that Mr. Pearsall is now making a personal inspection of the general route of this highway.

As soon as his reconnaissance work is finished he will be furnished with five or six field parties and will immediately start surveys and preparation of plans for this improvement.

It is the intention of this office to push this work as rapidly as possible and to have the entire project ready for the acceptance of bids early in the spring of 1920. In making of surveys no favoritism will be shown any county are any discretion made. Each county may rest assured that its survey and plans will be completed as soon as possible and that contract will be awarded on the entire project at the same time.

We feel that in handling this survey in the manner indicated, that we will not only expedite the progress of the work very materially but economize very much in the cost of surveys.

Trusting that our method of handling this work will meet with your hearty approval, I am

Yours very truly,
Joe S. Baggis,
Commissioner.

WILBORN—McLEAN.

Last night a very quiet and simple, yet effective wedding ceremony was performed when Dr. Hudson united in marriage Mr. Jesse Wilborn and Miss Lina Lee McLean at the home of the bride, 705 North Bolivar street. Only a few intimate friends and relatives witnessed this happy event. Mr. and Mrs. Wilborn left immediately after the ceremony for several places in Louisiana. They were accompanied as far as Shreveport by Mrs. Norman Rand, Miss Nellie Heartsill, Miss Annie Rudd and others.

Mrs. Wilborn was born and reared in Fort Worth, where she completed her high school education. After she moved to Marshall, she attended College of Marshall last year, where her brilliancy won her a high position among the faculty and all those who know her sterling qualities.

Mr. Wilborn is foreman of the Messenger office and is highly thought of by all who know him. He spent about a year in the army at Camp Travis.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilborn will be at home with the bride's father, J. A. McClean, on North Bolivar street after September 20th. —Marshall Morning News, Sept. 14, 1919.

EDITOR'S NOTE:—The above will be interesting to Crittenden county folks, since Jesse Wilborn was born and raised in this county. He is a son of Albert Wilborn, who now lives in Mannsville, Oklahoma.

Courier Bargain Rates.

It is refreshing news that in this era of high prices The Evansville Courier has not advanced its subscription rates and its October bargain rate of $5.00 will result in largely increased subscription lists.

October is the great subscription month for The Courier and our folks will be busy sending in subscriptions.

The Courier brings the first war news to this section and merits its great reputation.

Why Teach Agriculture In The High School.

1. Crittenden county is and always will be primarily an agricultural county.
2. "Uncle Sam" believes it should be taught in every county in the United States and agrees to pay one half the teachers salary.
3. American farmers waste enough food each year to feed two million people.
4. Farmers each year lose fifty millions of dollars worth of plant food from manure piles through leaching.
5. Farmers in Crittenden county allow gullies to be washed out on their farm deep enough to bury a horse.
6. It would require every railroad in the United States, working every day, hauling fifty tons to each car and fifty cars to each train, to carry the soil that is washed annually into the Atlantic, Pacific and the Gulf.
7. Why do farmers leaye their plows, rakes, discs and binders, costing hundreds of dollars, exposed to the rain, frosts and snows to rust and depreciate in value?
8. To help more farmers realize the importance and earning capacity of pure bred sires to head their droves, flocks and herds.
9. To link the school and home, to conserve natural resources, to make farming more profitable, to develop a contented and efficient people on the farm.
10. To emphasize the why and how of soil cultivation. What is soil? How formed? What is plant food and how much is contained in each average acre of Crittenden county soil?

This column will be devoted to timely agricultural problems of the county and should be of interest to all farmers.

WATERWORKS YET.

The Press has harped so much about waterworks for Marion that it rained last Sunday. And that is not all. There is going to be something in this paper about waterworks every week until we get 'em. We can prove that it is cheaper to have water than not to have it. We can prove that it is more healthful for a town to have water and sewer system than not to have them. No proof is necessary that it is much more convenient to draw water out of a faucet than it is out of a well. Hardly necessary to prove that it is much pleasanter to take a bath in a regular bath tub than it is in the wash tub, or similar utensil. Since every one will concede the truth of these statements then will some one explain why Marion will do without waterworks? The editor of the Press asked one of the promoters of the new light company why "water" wasn't added to the commodities they were going to sell and he said that they didn't think that would pay dividends for a year or so after installation. We'll wager a couple of two dollar cats against a four dollar dog that the savings on insurance premiums in Marion would pay a handsome dividend on the entire investment of a water, light, ice and cold storage plant and have enough left over to buy cigars for the directors when they met. Any way a water system would have paid a handsome dividend on the morning of July 22. Let's not forget that. Marion must start construction on this water system before July first, 1920. Might as well get ready this winter.

OFFERS OPINION TOGETHER WITH FACTS OF TRIAL

Mrs. Wilms, Freed of Troubles Endured Since Childhood, Lauds Trutona.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 19.—"If every preparation advertised as a remedy were as honest in purpose and practice as Trutona, I feel confident there would either be fewer medicines or a lesser number of sick people," Mrs. W. Wilms, a well known Louisville woman of 325 North Adams street, said recently.

"I have suffered stomach trouble, since childhood," she continued. "Since last July I've been able to rest only three or four nights out of a week. The others I passed sitting in a chair. Contracted muscles caused me terrible pain. I had no appetite and at times couldn't eat anything for two or three days. I was nervous and so weak I could hardly get around. My terrible suffering finally caused a brief spell of insanity."

"I have finished my fourth bottle of this excellent preparation, Trutona, and I no longer experience the terrible pains and can enjoy a good night's rest once again. My nervousness is almost entirely relieved and for the first time in a year I'm able to do my own housework. I have a fine appetite now, eat everything without the least bit of trouble afterward. Knowing what Trutona has done for me I cannot recommend it too highly."

Trutona is now being introduced and explained in Marion at J. H. Orme's Drug Store. Adv.

OBITUARY

Little John Allen Franks was born July 8th, 1916, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Franks.

Before Mrs. Franks' marriage she was Miss Rosa Allen, the youngest daughter of B. I. Allen. Little John Allen's stay in this world with his parents and little sister, was very short, as he was three years old when he died. He died July 1st, 1919. He was sick only a few days, he was a patient sufferer.

A short time before he died he said, "mama" three times, but could not tell what he wanted. He was a bright sweet child, just two children in this home. The little sister is left to mourn her loss with father and mother.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. W. T. Oakley, at Chapel Hill, in the presence of a number of relatives and friends.

The interment was in the Chapel Hill cemetery. The floral offering was pretty.

Once the turtle
beat the hare
—Once

ONCE the fire insurance on your property ran close to its value. Now the value has far outstripped the insurance and a fire would mean a greater loss to you than ever before.

The increased value is a fine thing but the increased risk is dangerous.

For your own protection you should do two things—now. First, increase your insurance and second, reduce the chance of fire. The Hartford Fire Insurance Company offers you this double protection at the mere cost of the insurance premiums.

Let us explain this new service which gives you every means of preventing a fire and adequate, reliable insurance in case a fire does occur, despite your precautions.

Every Delco Light represents a satisfied user.

More Than 75,000 Satisfied Users

DELCO-LIGHT was designed and built by men who were raised in farm homes—who experienced the discomforts and inconveniences of farm life—and who set out deliberately years ago to develop an electric plant that would provide city advantages for rural communities.

They were the same men whose engineering talent had made DELCO Starting, Lighting and Ignition Equipment for automobiles the standard of the world—

They knew electricity—and they knew the needs and limitations of farm life—

They knew that an electric plant to give service in a farm home must be simple, so that it would not get out of order and require complicated repairs—

It must be easily operated and require little attention—

It must be very economical in operation—

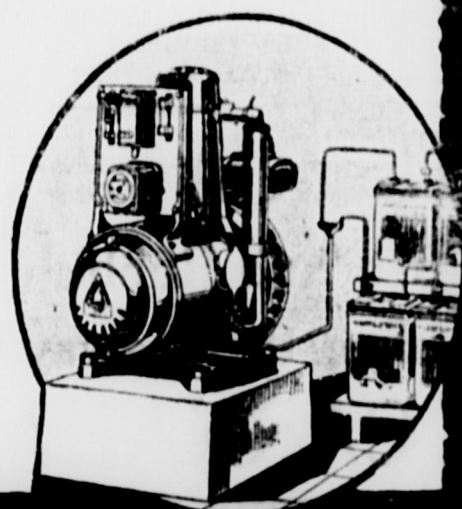

It must be built to stand hard usage and it must last indefinitely—
